engar & Sons Ltd, will continue to invest, expand, and grow its business as it feels that most of the buyers are in the wait-and-watch mode now, and growth will resume in a few quarters.

"The passenger car market has seen good growth in the past 4-5 years. But, this is the period people are feeling little uncertain about various things. However, we hope things will start improving after 3-4 months. I don't think the temporary set back should make us feel that the growth has flattened or ended," said Ram Santhanam, Joint MD, TVS Sundram Iyengar and Sons Ltd. Meanwhile, Sundaram Honda, which handles dealerships for Honda cars across South India, has become the first dealer to clock cumulative sales of one lakh units of Honda.

Sundaram Honda, which started handling sales and service of Honda in 1998, sold the first 40,000 cars in 14 years and the balance 60,000 units were sold in about seven years. Mid-size sedan Honda City accounted for about 45 per cent of the total sales, followed by Amaze and Jazz.
